CLASS OF 1986 SCHOLARSHIP

The NUS Faculty of Law Class of '86 alumni had established a non-endowed fund to provide scholarships to financially needy and academically meritorious law students.

The expendable gift is to be used to award faculty-level scholarships to law students reading the undergraduate LLB degree and law freshmen who are entering the Faculty of Law, National University of Singapore.

Selection Committee

A Selection Committee shall be empowered to award the scholarships. The Selection Committee shall comprise two members of the Faculty of Law Class of '86, representing the donors of the scholarship.

Selection Criteria

- (b) be enrolled or accepted for enrolment in the Faculty of Law, National University of Singapore; and
- (c) have a per capita household income* not exceeding One Thousand Five Hundred Singapore Dollars (S$1,500.00).

(*Per capita household income = Total gross income per household ÷ No. of members in the household. Total gross income per household includes the income from parents, siblings, grandparents and other relatives in the immediate household as well as any income from government bodies or charitable organisations.)

In making its recommendations, the Selection Committee shall consider the candidates' academic record, financial circumstances and extra-curricular activities records.

The Selection Committee reserves the right not to award any scholarship, if there are no candidates of sufficient merit.

Award

Each academic year until the fund is depleted, the Selection Committee will make such number of awards as it deems appropriate subject to the provision that the maximum amount in the aggregate that may be disbursed in any given year is Twenty Thousand Singapore Dollars (S$20,000.00).

Each award shall be up to Four Thousand Singapore Dollars (S$4,000.00).

A scholarship shall be tenable only for the academic year in which it is awarded but all awardees may re-apply in any subsequent academic year.

Other Conditions

The Scholarship Selection Committee reserves the right to revoke or suspend the Scholarship if and when it deems fit. This could be due to one or more of the following circumstances:

- (b) the conduct of the recipient comes under scrutiny; and/or
