LEE SENG TEE SCHOLARSHIP

The NUS Faculty of Law is pleased to inform that an anonymous donor has made a gift of S$260,000 to the Faculty to establish a faculty-level endowed scholarship called the “Lee Seng Tee Scholarship” (hereafter called “Scholarship”) targeted at academically meritorious students at the NUS Faculty of Law.

Selection Committee

A Selection Committee shall be empowered to award the Scholarship. The Selection Committee shall comprise of members of the Faculty, as nominated from time to time by the Law Dean.

Selection Criteria

In order to be eligible for the Scholarship, the applicant must possess good academic results.

The Selection Committee’s decisions are final. The Selection Committee reserves the right not to award any Scholarship in any Academic Year, if there are no candidates who sufficiently meet the criteria.

Award

The expendable gift is to be used to award one Scholarship award to be given in Academic Year 2019/2020, valued at $10,000. In subsequent years, the number and quantum of Scholarships to be awarded each year is subject to the University’s spending limit and availability of funds, whichever is lower (estimated at one scholarship of at least $7,000).

The Scholarship is tenable only for the Academic Year in which it is awarded.

Other Conditions

The Scholarship Selection Committee reserves the right to revoke or suspend the Scholarship, if and when it deems fit. This could be due to one or more of the following circumstances:

- (a) The conduct of the recipient (past and present) comes under scrutiny; and
- (b) The academic progress or performance of the recipient is considered unsatisfactory.

Awardees must not concurrently hold any other form of free aid such as scholarships, bursaries or grants, without the prior approval of the Selection Committee as well as the respective awarding bodies.
