LINKLATERS IMPACT SCHOLARSHIP

The NUS Faculty of Law is pleased to inform that Linklaters Singapore Pte Ltd has made a gift to establish a faculty-level full-term undergraduate Scholarship to provide financially needy students with the opportunity to read law at NUS, helping them to make the most of the opportunities available to them, regardless of personal background, social identity and socio-economic circumstances.

One new full-term Scholarship will be awarded every two years, commencing in Academic Year 2023/2024.

Selection Committee

A Selection Committee shall be empowered to award the Scholarship. The Selection Committee shall comprise of representatives from the Faculty and/or Donor.

Selection Criteria

In order to be eligible for the Scholarship, the applicant must fulfil the following conditions:

- (a) Candidates should be Singapore citizens;
- (b) Candidates must be offered admission to or enrolled in the four-year LLB Programme at the Faculty;
- (c) Candidates must have demonstrated financial needs by having applied, and being eligible for, University-administered financial aid;
- (d) Candidates must possess good academic results and have performed well during the Faculty's admissions tests and interviews;

In making its recommendations, the Selection Committee shall consider the candidates' academic record, financial circumstances and extra-curricular activities records.

The Selection Committee reserves the right not to award any scholarship, if there are no candidates of sufficient merit.

Award

The bond-free, full-term undergraduate Scholarship will support each Scholarship recipient with the following:

- (a) $15,000 per Academic Year for four years of the LLB Programme, (subject to fulfilment of conditions for continuation of the Scholarship);

- (b) Non-obligatory offer of internship with Linklaters Singapore;

The scholarship will be monitored and renewed each year. For the Scholarship to be renewed, the Scholarship recipient must be ranked within the top 80% of the Law cohort, or where applicable, maintain a Grade Point Average (GPA) of at least 3.5, in each Academic Year.

For the avoidance of doubt, the Scholarship shall not include any additional fees for other programmes such as the Double Degree Programmes and the Concurrent Degree Programme which may extend beyond four years of study, should such programme be offered to the candidate after the year of admission.

Other Conditions

The Scholarship Committee reserves the right to revoke or suspend the Scholarship, if and when it deems fit. This could be due to one or more of the following circumstances:

- (a) The conduct of the recipient (past and present) comes under scrutiny; and/or
- (b) The academic progress or performance of the recipient is considered unsatisfactory.

Applicants/awardees must note concurrently hold any other form of free aid e.g. bursaries, scholarships without the prior approval from the respective awarding bodies.

The University reserves the right to demand a full refund of all monies expended under the Scholarship if the Scholar terminates prematurely his/her course of study at NUS Law or terminates or withdraws from the Scholarship, or if the Scholarship is withdrawn due to any disciplinary or legal offence
