NUS LAW SCHOLARSHIP

The NUS Faculty of Law is pleased to inform that Barclays Bank Plc, having established the faculty-level non-endowed Scholarship called the "NUS Law Scholarship" (hereafter called "Scholarship") in 2014, has pledged to the Law School a further expendable sum towards one Scholarship for an NUS Law Undergraduate for the remaining duration of his or her studies.

Selection Committee

A Selection Committee shall be empowered to award the Scholarship. The Selection Committee shall comprise representatives from the Faculty and Donors.

Selection Criteria

In order to be eligible for the Scholarship, the applicant must:

- (1) be a Singapore citizen;
- (2) be enrolled and pursuing Law as a first degree in NUS; and
- (3) have a monthly per household capita income of $1,500 and below.

The Selection Committee's decisions are final. The Selection Committee reserves the right not to award any Scholarship in any Academic Year, if there are no candidates who sufficiently meet the criteria.

Award

The expendable gift is to be used to award one (1) Scholarship to be given in Academic Year 2023/2024.

The Scholarship will be valued at $6,000 annually, up to a maximum disbursement sum of $18,000 over 3 years (depending on the number of years of study left). The disbursement of the first $6,000 will be upon selection. For disbursement of the subsequent tranche of $6,000, the recipient must continue to satisfy the monthly household per capita income requirement.

The Scholarship recipient(s) may be offered the chance to undertake paid work experience in Barclays Bank Plc's legal department in Singapore during the NUS vacation period(s).

Other Conditions

The Scholarship Selection Committee reserves the right to revoke or suspend the Scholarship, if and when it deems fit. This could be due to one or more of the following circumstances:

- (a) The conduct of the recipient (past and present) comes under scrutiny;
- (b) The academic progress or performance of the recipient is considered unsatisfactory; and
- (c) The recipient no longer satisfies the monthly household per capita income requirement.

Awardees must not concurrently hold any other form of free aid such as scholarships, bursaries or grants, without the prior approval of the Selection Committee as well as the respective awarding bodies.

The Scholarship terminates automatically if the Scholar should terminate prematurely his/her course of study at NUS Law, and the University reserves the right to demand full refund by the Scholar of all monies disbursed under the Scholarship.
